

Productivity is the current buzzword across various sectors in Singapore, including the building and construction sector. Questions on how to enhance productivity in the industry naturally became the hot topic of discussion at the inaugural Young Leaders Retreat. Ideas flowed freely as 48 Young Leaders brainstormed ways to enhance construction productivity.

½ Day Retreat with Senior Minister of State Ms Grace Fu

Ms Grace Fu sharing her thoughts with Young Leaders on productivity and how it impacts the construction sector

Young Leaders presenting their recommendations to Ms Grace Fu

The Young Leaders engrossed in discussion

They then presented their key suggestions and recommendations to Ms Grace Fu, who was invited as the Guest of Honour at the retreat. Ms Fu also shared her thoughts on the national productivity drive and how the construction industry could move ahead in the next decade.